

When ever big businesses are allowed to create greater monolpoies, the people (consumers) lose. By allowing fewer companies own TV and Radio broadcast outlets, you limit the flow of information with in the news industry and you limit the ability for local choices and imput as to the content of entertainment and news available to communities. Say no to bigger ownership of broadcast outlets. Thank you. Alta Warren